They must also have an appropriate visa if required by you to travel to the UK. Entries for this competition must go through the IAWA. Participants must be of a reasonable standard of wrestling ability. Wrestling ability must be verified by an IAWA Coach. Participants must be medically fit to wrestle.

Wrestlers and Coaches are reminded that when travelling abroad they are representing Ireland and Irish Wrestling. The only thing that is asked for in return for sponsoring wrestlers travelling to compete in these events, is that they do their best and if they are lucky enough to make it onto the podium for a medal that they wear Irish Wrestling apparel such as an IAWA branded T-shirt, hoodie or singlet. When the IAWA invest in wrestlers travelling to represent Irish wrestling, it is only fair that it gets recognised publicly.

By signing up to take part in this competition you are also signing up to the IAWA Code of Conduct for wrestlers and Sport Ireland's Rules on Anti-Doping. The anti-doping rules of the Irish Amateur Wrestling Association are the Irish Anti-Doping Rules as agreed with WADA and as amended from time to time and the Doping Regulations promulgated by United World Wrestling.
